

THE HISTORY FIGHT.

Committees Appear Before the School Board and Submit Their Complaints.

WANT BARNES' BOOK OUSTED.

Some of the objections to the Publication—Mr. Dickerson Defends the Work, and Says the Trouble Will Be in Getting Anything Better.

The City School Board held a two-hour conference last evening with the committees from Lee and Pickett camps and the Sons of Veterans upon the matter of eliminating Barnes' History from the public schools of Richmond. The objectionable features of the book in question were pointed out by the gentlemen representing the camps. Those present from the board were Chairman J. Taylor, Ellyson, and Messrs. J. H. Capers, R. Edgar, George B. Davis, A. D. Langford, Joseph C. Dickerson, and A. L. Phillips.

From the committees there were in attendance Captains M. W. Hazlewood, John Bolling, Thomas P. Pollard, W. E. Tully, Edwin Courtney, and Messrs. F. W. Mahood, Edwin P. Cox, and Peter McCurdy.

Chairman Ellyson stated that he had called the meeting to hear the complaint of the Confederate camps against Barnes' History of the United States, and their request to stop its use in the public schools of the city. Mr. Ellyson called upon the committees from the camps to furnish the board with some of their objections to the book in question.

OBJECTIONS TO THE BOOK.

Mr. John Bolling was first to have anything to say upon the matter. He said he had read the history carefully, and had found some of the many mistakes and false statements. The first he mentioned was the statement that some of the victories in the early part of the war on the part of the Confederates were suppressed and all credit given to the Union army.

He said his main objection was that it was written by a northern man, from a northern standpoint, and gave the ideas of the northern men in the northern army.

Impressions made on the undeveloped minds of the children of the South were false and poisonous. Barnes' History failed to give the general character of the character of the men on both sides.

A SACKED CAUSE.

Mr. Bolling said the southern cause was just as sacred and just as the revolutionary cause was. It should be understood clearly by the children of the South that although their fathers had rendered this country the greatest service in the history of the world, yet they were not recognized in the slightest way of the principles for which they fought. He wanted the School Board to take some steps which would result in the discontinuance of the use of the history in the public schools of Richmond, so that the minds of the youth of this city would be no longer poisoned by the book. Mr. Bolling said that rather than have Barnes' History taught in the schools, he would prefer no history at all, so far as the period between 1860 and 1865 was concerned. He referred to a number of paragraphs in the history in which he said there were errors or important omissions, and added that even the general language used in the history was poison to the young minds of the children of the Confederacy.

THE ALLEGED FAULTS.

Mr. Dickerson asked Captain Bolling to point out some of the paragraphs in Barnes' History to which objection was raised. The Captain said that there was no mention of Jackson's battle at Cedar Run, except in the foot notes; there was no report of the fight at Bull Run, but that the book called the battle of Manassas the Bull Run fight. No mention was made of the displacing of Federal general in the battle of the Potomac. The book failed to make any mention of Jackson's splendid campaign in the Valley, and made many false statements about the battle of Seven Pines. The history also did not mention the first of the battles in which the Confederates were victorious. In the seven-day fight around Richmond the book only says that McClellan simply withdrew, when he was completely whipped. There were false statements in regard to the battle between the Merrimack and the Monitor.

MR. MAHOOD OBJECTED TO THE LANGUAGE USED IN THE PREFACE OF THE BOOK.

Mr. Dickerson made a strong defence of Barnes' History, saying that he had carefully compared it with other publications, notably Holmes', and had found it to be more comprehensive and teachable, and to deal fairly in many instances. He referred to the preface of the book, and said that the two books would be sufficient for any one to determine that Barnes' History was the best for use in our schools. It was subsequent to this declaration that the other two histories, Shinn's and Housley's, were placed on the list by the State Board of Education. Barnes' book was then the best that the city board could get.

BY VOTES OF CONFEDERATES.

Mr. Dickerson remarked that there were several ex-Confederates upon the city School Board who loved as dearly as any one else the principles for which the South fought, and would be as prompt as any one to want the school system rid of a book that would poison the minds of the youth of this city. He said that if the board put on Barnes' History the first stumbling-block would be to find a better one.

THIS BROUGHT UP THE QUESTION OF THE POWER VESTED IN THE CITY BOARD TO MAKE CHANGES, AND, AFTER READING THE LAWS TOUCHING THIS MATTER, IT WAS CLEAR TO THE MINDS OF ALL THAT THE BODY HAS THE RIGHT TO CHANGE FROM BARNES' TO ANY OTHER HISTORY ON THE LIST, AS BARNES' HAD BEEN USED FOR THE PRECEDING FOUR YEARS. IT WAS ALSO AGREED THAT NOTHING COULD BE DONE IN THE MATTER OF A CHANGE OF THE HISTORY FOR THE APPROACHING SESSION OF THE SCHOOLS, WHICH OPEN ON MONDAY.

CLAIMED UNFAIR TO THE NORTH.

Mr. Dickerson, in closing his remarks, said the following clipping from a newspaper, dated Camden, N. J., May 31, 1895: "Lee Post, Grand Army of the Republic, of this city, to-day issued a letter demanding that the Board of Education remove from the public schools 'Barnes' Brief History of the United States.' The claim is made that it treats lightly the civil war, and fails to teach the danger of treason. This is done, the post claims, because the book was prepared for the schools of the South. As the book is also used in the schools here the board will investigate."

CAPTAIN POLLARD REMARKED THAT EITHER OF THE FOLLOWING CLIPPINGS FROM THE LIST WOULD BE ACCEPTABLE.

Mr. Ellyson explained that the board is a State and not a city organization, and amenable to State authorities. Mr. Davis moved that the board ask the Atorney-General for his opinion as to the powers of the city board in regard to text-books. This was withdrawn, and, at the suggestion of the chairman, a motion was adopted referring the question to a committee to consist of the Superintendent and principals of the schools of the city and the Committee on Teachers and Schools of the city board, which body is to consider the matter carefully and report to the board.

Must Be Vaccinated.

Mr. Fox, the Superintendent, brought to the attention of the board the subject of vaccination among the school children, and it was decided that no child would be registered in the schools until satisfactory proof of vaccination had been furnished.

There will be a meeting of all the white teachers at the Central School building to-morrow at 10 o'clock, and at 12 the colored teachers will hold a session at the same place for instruction and assignment.

A Portrait by Miss Williams.

Miss Adele Williams exhibits at Frank Brothers' an example of oil portraiture which illustrates very strikingly her talent and strength as an artist. It is a portrait of a lady in which some very difficult color-effects have been essayed and successfully mastered, and in which, also, all the details afford evidence of the true artistic conception. The modeling, expression, treatment of the drapery and hair, the pose of the head, and the introduction of the lights so as to throw the figure out from the background, and at the same time avoid startling contrast, all show that her study abroad was painstaking and appreciative, but it is exceedingly gratifying to observe that she has not lost in the influence of a foreign school her artistic identity, consciousness, and individuality.

New Members Elected.

The regular monthly meeting of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday evening at 6 o'clock. President S. H. Hawes presiding. The evening session was devoted to the election of new members, and the proceedings were limited to the election of the following new members: W. J. Gilman, plasterer; Barton H. Wise, attorney at law; Courtney Supply Company, railroad and machinists' supplies, proposed by S. H. Hawes; Strauss, Gunst & Co., wholesale liquor dealers, and James Gordon & Co., dealers in metal and grindstones, proposed by John D. Ellyson. J. W. Young, manager R. G. Dun & Co., proposed by E. J. Roshier.

North Carolina Farmers Here.

An excursion train from North Carolina brought several hundred "Tar-heads" here yesterday. Most of the visitors are tobacco-growers, and they bring thousands of pounds of bright leaf to be disposed of upon the Richmond market. They were given a hearty welcome by the trade here, and spent the day in visiting the points of interest in and around the city. The excursionists came from Wilson, Oxford, Rocky Mount, and that section of North Carolina. Sales will be unusually large and bright tobacco, cheerful planters, and eager buyers.

Bazaar at Barton Heights.

The Barton Heights Bazaar at the Wigwam, for the benefit of the Barton Heights Methodist church, commenced Monday night, and was largely attended. It continues to grow in interest, with new attractions each night. The Clay-Street Quartette, composed of Mrs. C. E. Smith, Miss Edna Rowlett, Mr. W. P. Southall, and Mr. R. E. Jones, will sing for them to-night.

I could get relief from a most horrible blood disease. I had spent hundreds of dollars trying various remedies and physicians, none of which did me any good. My finger nails came off and my hair came out, leaving me perfectly bald. I then went to

NOT SPRINGS

Hoping to be cured by this celebrated treatment, but very soon became disgusted and decided to try S.S.S. The effect was truly wonderful. I commenced to recover at once, and after I had taken two bottles I was entirely cured—cured by S.S.S. when the world-renowned Hot Springs had failed.
